

Health team uniform colors

To help you understand the role of each person who enters your room, we wear specific colors to indicate what we do.

 Steel gray Housekeeping	 Royal blue Lab	 Navy Registered Nurse	 Grape Licensed Practical Nurse	 Caribbean blue Radiology
 Plum with white lab coat Dietitian	 Blue with black apron Nutrition	 Teal Registration, reception, scribe, unit clerk	 Hunter green Inpatient care tech, nurse aide, messenger	 Wine Cardiovascular or respiratory therapist, sleep lab
 Olive Supply chain	 Light gray Emergency department paramedics	 Tan Patient safety attendants	 Black Occupational, speech or physical therapist, Cancer Center staff, clinic staff

NOTE:

- Doctors and other clinical staff may be wearing lab coats over street clothes.
- Ancillary departments may have a specific required dress or uniform standard.

The following colleagues (refer to dress code policy) should wear professional dress clothing:

- Case management
- Home Care
- Pharmacist
- Infusion
- Social worker
- Home Medical Equipment
- Hospice
- Outpatient Rehab

If you're in a clinical role providing input to a patient's plan of care, you may need to wear a lab coat – check with your manager.

NOTE: You may purchase any brand online, as long as the color shade matches your colleagues.
